WARM-UP – NASA GAME

LET'S DO NASA GAME!

You are a space boarder of a space shuttle.

Your space shuttle has accidentally landed on the Moon.

The destination is 200km away, and you need to reach there in order to survive.

However, your shuttle is broken because of the impact of landing.

You only found 15 items in the pile of rubble.

TO DO

Discuss with your fellow astronauts to prioritize those 15 items to survive.

The group which get the closest priority with NASA's official answer is win.

WHAT YOU HAVE

- A matchbox
- Solid space food
- 15m of nylon rope
- A parachute
- A portable heater
- Two pistols
- A case of powder milk
- An oxygen cylinder
- A star chart for moon
- A lifeboat
- A compass
- 19L of water
- A flare
- First aid kit with syringe
- FM transceiver with solar battery
